During the recent SAAHIP Conference, YPG was represented by Tendai Mutabeni Bbosa. This year we decided to do things a little differently, not just say what we as YPG stand for or what YPG is all about! We decided to let one of our previous YPG PIP (Professional Innovation Project) winners, Nicole Hoffman, do a brief presentation on her experience as well as her project. Since we were advertising the up and coming YPG PIP, we hoped that this would help encourage fellow YPG members to enter their projects. We also held our usual YPG newcomer Bingo, but this time we mixed it up a bit. The reason for the change was to allow our new comers to interact more with all fellow SAAHIP members. We decided to make the Bingo a little more challenging. Instead of just asking to identify a past president, we posed the questions in the form of a riddle:

The questions were as follows:

1. I am who I am, I am me, try to find me then you'll see.
I have a name and numbers is my game
2. I'm one of the queens that used to govern the land, come find me where I stand 3. I'm one of the mad sisters three, come find me then you'll see
4. I'm one of the winners, can't you see? If you're not me you'll turn green with envy
5. I'm one with many tongues I hold; I have a title or so I'm told
6. I travel the world with beer in cart, with knowledge to match every part?
7. I'm one of the old or so I'm told, I'm fun by the pound so find me around?
8. I'm one of the mad hatters three, a warrior I be so come find me
9. I'm an academic yes indeed, the quest for knowledge is the hunger I feed

How many would you be able to guess?

During the Saturday gala, we announced the lucky winner of the R500 gift voucher. All the correct answer sheets were placed in a box and Refiloe Mogale (SAAHIP President) did the lucky draw for us. The winner was Hethel Chouhan. Congratulations on winning the YPG Bingo!
